ORDER:

According to rule 6-A of the Madras Civil Services (War Service Personnel) Recruitment Rules, 1941 (as amended by G.O.No.975, Public (Services), dated 26th April 1948) , a war service candidate appointed to a reserved vacancy can be granted higher initial pay according to the merits of the case and having regard to the period of war service rendered by him subject to the condition that no portion of his war service rendered before 1st April 1941 or before the date on which he attained the age which is two years below the prescribed age-limit, whichever is later, should be taken into account in fixing the initial pay. In the special rules for certain services higher age-limits have been prescribed for members of certain backward or minority communities. The Government direct that in ~~the~~ the case of persons belonging to such communities and appointed to reserved vacancies, their constructive war service (ie. war service which counts for fixing initial pay) should be calculated with reference to the general age-limits prescribed for the posts and not with reference to the special age-limits applicable to members of such backward or minority communities. Where no age-limit applies (see general rule 10(d) or has been prescribed the persons concerned can have their initial pay fixed with reference to the date of commencement of their war service or 1st April 1941 whichever is later.
